

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT BLUEFIELD

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 1:18-00074

CASSANDRA TILLER

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

By Memorandum Opinion and Order dated February 24, 2021, the court revoked defendant's term of supervised release and sentenced her to a term of incarceration of one (1) month. The court further ordered that defendant be released from custody on March 3, 2021 so that she might begin a 28-day program at Presteria Pinecrest in Huntington as a special condition of supervised release. On February 26, 2021, defendant asked the court to modify its earlier order to direct that defendant be released on March 3, 2021, at 8:00 a.m., so that she might arrive at Presteria by 11:00 a.m. For good cause shown, defendant's motion is GRANTED and she is to be released from custody at 8:00 a.m., on March 3, 2021.

The Clerk is directed to forward a copy of this Memorandum Opinion and Order to counsel of record, the United States Marshal for the Southern District of West Virginia, and the Probation Department of this court.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 2nd day of March, 2021.

ENTER:

David A. Faber
Senior United States District Judge